

Instructions to Purchase Lots at Washtenong Cemetery

Washtenong Lot Purchase Process

Lots in our new TBE Jewish section at Washtenong are sold only through the Temple in sequential order as received. We are unable to accommodate random selection of spaces or "holds." The land is open and flat; every space has the same geography and "view." For convenience, lots may be purchased by mail—see details on the "Purchase Request" form. The TBE member "pre-need" discounted price is $2,000/lot through September 2018. Lots may be purchased over three years with no interest.

1. Indicate your preference for lot purchase and payment on the "Request to Purchase Washtenong Lots" form. For mail purchase, enclose your check to TBE with the Purchase form for either the full amount @$2,000/lot or @$666.67/lot for a three year purchase plan.
2. If you prefer a site visit to see the next available lots for an on-site purchase please indicate so on the form. A cemetery committee member will contact you to arrange a mutually convenient time to purchase on site. TBE lots are not sold through Washtenong office.

Note: For cost and land savings Rabbi Whinston, Temple policy, and Washtenong Cemetery permit multiple interments in one traditional lot as follows where partners and/or other family members wish to be interred together but may differ on interment preference. Allowed:

- One traditional burial plus 1 or 2 cremated remains, or
- Up to 3 cremated remains

Cremation Considerations

More Reform congregants are selecting this option to be greener, conserve scarce land, and save money. For questions on cremation as a Reform option, please contact Rabbi Whinston.

The Temple maintains a separate cremation area of smaller cremation interment spaces in our Jewish section at Arborcrest. For details go to the TBE website under the Cemetery link for information and pricing of this option at Arborcrest. At this time, Washtenong cremation interments are only in a full traditional lot or multiple interments in a single lot described above.
